BRWII-480/81

We know little about John R. B.'s early years but do know that he went to sea early and lived through perhaps the most critical period in Southern History. During the Civil War he was both captain of the High Seas and pilot in the Mobile Bay Harbor. It was his and other captains' duty to run the "Yankee Blockade" and keep the supplies going to the war fronts in the East and to the local people of this area. It was their job to outsmart Admiral Farragut between the Caribbean Islands and Mobile. He was slightly wounded in a battle April 6 and 7th, 1862.

Even before the war he was sailing the Atlantic and from time-to-time bringing ships and pilot boats to the port city....

Later , after retiring to some extent around Vernal he rafted logs to the mills down at Moss Point. In 1883 the Denny Lumber Company paid him only $10.90 for one raft of logs.

John R. B. McIntosh was a faithful member of the Vernal Presbyterian Church and attended regularly. He took his own chair to sit in. With a yoke of oxen he went to Mobile and brought home a Communion Table and matching chairs. He loved good singing and furnished the seats for the choir.

In some MS records the name is spelled Holford.

Dear Mrs. Edwards:

Thank you for your letter regarding the McIntosh and Halford surnames. I am searching for the parents of my great-great grandparents Pickett McIntosh and Martha Ann Halford/Alford. I am not positive that Swene McIntosh is an ancestor, but it is possible.

Pickett McIntosh was born in North Carolina, most probably Richmond County, about 1830. Family sources say his mother was a Leak. There were Pickett and Leak families in Anson and Richmond counties in North Carolina at the right times. The surnames Pickett and Leak were carried several generations as given names. Hannah Pickett, the daughter of William Pickett of Anson Co. NC married Walter Leak, the son of William Leak of Richmond Co. NC.

The only McIntosh listed in Richmond County NC in the 1784-1787 state census was Swine with 2 white males between 21 and 60, 4 white males under 21 or over 60, and 3 white females. In the 1790 census for Richmond Co. NC Sweney is again the only McIntosh listed: 1 male over 16; 4 males under 16; 4 females; and 3 slaves. Swin is listed again in the 1800 census for Richmond Co. NC: 3 males 16-26; 1 male 26-45; 1 female 10-16; 1 female 16-26; 1 female over 45; and 1 slave.

Sweney McIntosh is buried in the McIntosh Cemetery in the southwest part of Wilcox Co. AL. He was born Jan 1745 in Glenelg in the shire of Inverness, Scotland, came to America in 1773, and died 1 Apr 1827 at the age of 82 years and 8 months. His wife was Nancy (____), who was born in April 1745 in Glenelg, Inverness, Scotland and died 11 Dec 1842 at the age of 97 years and 9 months. She is buried in the same cemetery as her husband. Also buried in that cemetery are undoubtedly three of their sons: Angus, born May 1783, died 8 Jan 1838, age 55, married Jenette, who after his death married John McDonnell; Alexander, born 15 Jun 1775, died 15 Apr 1848 age 72 years 10 months; and John K., born 23 Jan 1805; died 8 Feb 1848. Other family members are also buried in this cemetery.

As to the information you requested on Jasper Co. MS McIntoshes and Halfords, please see the accompanying page. Inasmuch as my father and grandfather were born in Jasper Co. MS and one of my ancestors was William Hosey who came from NC to MS at or about the time of statehood and settled in what became Jones Co. and then moved to Jasper Co. after the Choctaw treaty, I have done a great deal of research on Jasper County families. I expect to publish some of this research in the future, but am willing to share some of what I know for your WHO MARRIED WHOM.

Yours truly,

Dear Madam:

In this hour of your deepest sorrow, occasioned by the sudden departure of your beloved son to that "undiscovered country from whose borne no traveler returns," his fellow-ship-mates desire to express, thru me, their heartfelt sympathy for you in the bereavement caused by his untimely death.----Untimely it was, for every one among his many friends entertained the utmost confidence in his speedy recovery, after being removed to the Hospital, and ultimate return to the Company he so abruptly left.

It is hoped you will find some comfort in learning that your dear boy did splendidly here. Considerate and courteous to others; frank in his convictions; amicable; proficient in his duties and promptness in execution of orders soon won the confidence of those above him in authority, and the admiration of the men in his own Company, and soon resulted in his appointment as Boy Petty Officer.

Tho his life was not sacrificed in battle on board ship, he died, nevertheless, while serving in the interest of his country, and passed away as honorably as tho he had been so engaged at the fateful moment.

In token of the deep sympathy we all feel, a money order is enclosed for the purchase of a floral wreath to be placed upon his coffin as coming from his comrades in the Yeoman Company and myself as his Company Commander.

Very sincerely yours,

J. L. McFarland

DEATH ENDS LONG LIFE OF SERVICE

Stroke of Apoplexy Causes Sudden
Death of J. J. McIntosh
At His Home.

Mr. John James McIntosh, one of the most prominent men in South Mississippi and an outstanding leader in business, community and church life of Moss Point, died suddenly at his home Thursday evening at 5:50 o'clock from a stroke of apoplexy. He suffered the attack a few minutes after he had entered the back door of his home after putting his car in the garage, and death came before Dr. J. N. Rape, who was hastily summoned, arrived at the house. Mr. McIntosh had apparently been in perfect health, for he spent the day at his office going about his regular duties and at noon attended the weekly meeting of the Lions club, of which he is president, calling the meeting to order and taking a leading part in discussions of matters before the club.

The funeral will be conducted Saturday morning at 10 o'clock with services at the Presbyterian church, and interment at the Griffin cemetery. Services at the grave will be under auspices of the Moss Point Masonic Lodge, of which Mr. McIntosh was secretary at the time of his death.

News of the sudden death of Mr. McIntosh cast a pall of gloom over Moss Point and surrounding cities, as he had been identified with the development and expansion of this section of the state since he established his residence in Moss Point over thirty years ago. His acquaintanceship extended to every section of Mississippi through his interest in the Masonic Lodge, while his leadership and active participation in many movements for the development of his state and particularly for the Port of Pascagoula, had brought him in contact with persons in every walk of life in Jackson county.

Mr. McIntosh was born in St. Vincent, Ontario, Canada, May 20, 1864. His father was Thomas McIntosh, a native of Scotland, and his mother was Elizabeth Paterson, a native of Canada. Mr. McIntosh grew to manhood in Canada, marrying in the dominion and in 1890 he and his wife removed to Mobile, Ala., where he became associated with his uncle, A. J. Paterson, in the lumber export business. A year later he moved to Moss Point to take charge of the lumber export business of Paterson and Downing, holding that position until 1901, when he became associated with F. Comer and N. McInnis in the McIntosh Lumber company, which soon grew to be one of the larger lumber manufacturing companies of this section. Mr. McIntosh had held the position of secretary and treasurer of this company since it was organized.

Shortly after coming to Moss Point his wife died, leaving him with a young child, who lived but a short while. A few years later Mr. McIntosh was married to Miss Maggie McInnis, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. S. A. McInnis, and four children were born to this union. Allister, the eldest son, died in 1917 while in the service of the United States Navy, while two other sons, L. K. of McComb and K. A. of New Orleans and one daughter, Miss Florence, of Moss Point, with their mother survive him.

For a number of years Mr. McIntosh was a director of the Merchants & Marine Bank and cashier of the Moss Point branch of this institution. In 1912 he resigned this position and moved with his family to Chicora, Miss., to take charge of the Robinson Land & Lumber company, but returned to Moss Point two years later and resumed his former positions with the bank and the McIntosh Lumber company.

Mr. McIntosh took a deep interest in Masonic Lodge, being a constant attendant at sessions of the Mississippi Grand Lodge. He had held every chair office in the Moss Point Masonic Lodge, the Royal Arch Masons and the Order of the Eastern Star, and at the time of his death was secretary of the Masonic Lodge. He was Past Deputy Grand Master of the Grand Masonic Lodge of Mississippi, Past Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of R. A. M. of Mississippi, Past Worthy Grand Patron of the Grand Chapter of the O. E. S. of Mississippi, and was chairman of the finance committee of the Grand Chapter of the O. E. S., when he died.

Mr. McIntosh's life was one of service to his fellowman and to his adopted country and state, and few men have attained the friendship and confidence in which he was held in Moss Point and Jackson county. During his entire residence in Moss Point he was active in the promotion of business and community life. He was one of the outstanding leaders in securing larger appropriations for Pascagoula harbor and Pascagoula and Escatawpa rivers, and was a member of the several chambers of commerce formed by citizens of Moss Point and Pascagoula which had for the primary object the development of the port's commerce. At one time he was president of the Pascagoula and Moss Point Chamber of Commerce, and gave freely of his time and talents in promoting its work, making visits to the national capital to appear before the appropriations committee of the house of representatives to secure support for harbor work.

During the World War, Mr. McIntosh found time from his busy life to serve as a member of the County Draft Board and was Federal Fuel and Food Administrator of the county, directing the conservation and regulation of food supplies so necessary in the conduct of the war.

Young McIntosh contracted measles about a week ago, but no apprehension was felt until Wednesday, when a message came announcing his critical illness and saying that pleurisy has developed.

McIntosh had about five weeks ago enlisted in the navy. He was a graduate of the local school, finishing his course of study here in the class of 1910. He also attended the Southwestern Presbyterian University at Clarksville, Tenn. Interment will be made in this place Sunday at the Griffin Cemetery.

DEATH OF J. ALISTER McINTOSH
SHOCK TO COMMUNITY.

The sad news of the death of Mr. J. Alister McIntosh, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McIntosh, which occurred Wednesday night at Great Lakes, Ill., has cast a pall of gloom over the entire community.

Information as to the illness and death of this popular young man is at this time meagre, but it is known that about a week ago he contracted measles, but his fond parents were not apprehensive until Wednesday afternoon when a telegram came stating he had contracted measles which was followed by pleurisy, and that his condition was critical. A second message received Wednesday night contained the shocking and almost unbelievable news of his untimely death.

About five weeks ago young McIntosh answering the appeal for volunteers offered his services to his Country, he was accepted as a yeoman and ordered to report to the Great Lakes Training Station, and it was at that point that death occurred, the hour of which the telegram did not state.

After reaching the training camp Alister won promotion almost instantly, being appointed a Chief Petty Officer. Letters to his parents were to the effect that he was well pleased with his work and military duties all of which were equally as pleasing to the parents.

Young McIntosh, though not a native of Moss Point, had spent his entire life here. He was born 23 years ago in Meaford, Ontario, Canada, on September 8th, 1893, his early education was secured in the public schools of this city, graduating from the Central School in the class of 1910. After leaving the local school he attended the Southwestern Presbyterian University at Clarksville, Tenn., for two sessions.

Alister McIntosh was one of this city's best known and most popular young men, no young man of this place possesses of more friends than did he or enjoys a wider degree of popularity. He represented a true type of young manhood, one whose future was unusually bright.

It is sad indeed that one just entering the prime of life would have to answer the call of the Great Redeemer.

At the time The Advertiser goes to press no arrangements for the funeral have been made owing to the uncertainty as to when the remains will reach here but in all probability the funeral will take place Saturday if the remains arrive Friday. Due announcement as to this will be made later.

This paper joins other sympathizing friends in extending to the bereaved family its sincerest sympathy in their sad hour of this great bereavement.

no doubt than Mother would show us it

When these sewed crowns were made up, the

1882 Essay - Editorial

In many respects the past year was remarkable.
In the first place the clerk of the weather seemed to have lost his reckoning and mixed up the seasons in a very unusual manner. During the early winter months we had mild spring weather; as the spring advanced cold north winds set in and prevailed with short intervals, until far into the summer months. The early fall months were like summer months, and the latter part of Nov. and the entire month of Dec, unusually cold and disagreeable. Again the year was marked

SUBJECT: MACINTOSH

Hi Ray,

This Macintosh/McIntosh clan is from Scotland.

Actually I don't have much research on them, just copied some pages from the book because my FOREHAND/HARDIN/POWELL family supposedly has McIntosh in it too from the AL/GA area. So there is a possibility, but not confirmed.

Anyway, the book is called:

"A History And Genealogy of Chief William McIntosh Jr. And His Known Descendants". By; Harriet Turner (Porter) Corbin, the gg granddaughter of Chief McIntosh.

Copyright by Harriet Corbin, 1967. 531 Richmond Ca.; El Segundo, CA

Editor Carl C. Burdick Jr, Long Beach, CA

Anyway, I don't know if there is any from England in this clan.

Since the book only follows direct line descendants to the scottish chiefdom (it goes back to the first Chief in 1137!), I suppose it is entirely possible that somewhere along the line a branch may have gone over to England.

Al I have copies of are the beginning pages listing the descending clan chiefs. Then picking the line up in GA/AL, I only copied the pages that pertained to the descendants that stayed in that particular area, since that is where my bunch may have come into it.

Apparently this is a VERY large family, spread out all over the US.

The most famous member is Chief William McIntosh, who was half indian. His gr grandson Chief Waldo Emerson (Dode) McIntosh, was also a famous man here in OK.

I would have copied the whole book at the time, but the library charges .25 per page! For that, I figured I'd rather just drive out to the library & look up any other info if I needed it!

Sorry, but the descendants of this particular clan is all I have, I know nothing of any other McIntosh/Macintosh lines.

Mrs. Patricia N. Edwards

Dear Mrs. Edwards:

About a year ago you responded to my query in the GENEALOGICAL HELPER about Swene McIntosh and requested some additional information for your proposed Who Married Whom for Jasper County, MS. You also offered to match what I know about Swene McIntosh to information in your files. You also asked about the Hosey family of Jasper County.

I do not, of course, have complete information, but since school is finally out again (I've been teaching high school English) I want to try to respond to your need for information before I go to work somewhere else.

According to information in my files Swene McIntosh was born in Jan 1745 at Glenelg in the shire of Inverness, Scotland. He married Nancy ____, born April 1745 also at Glenelg. They came to America in 1773. The first record I have is that Swene signed the petition of Oct 1779 to partition Anson County, NC to create Richmond County. He is listed in the 1784-1787 North Carolina state census for Richmond County, the 1790 and 1800 North Carolina federal censuses for Richmond County, the 1810 South Carolina census for Chesterfield County, the 1819 tax roll for Greene County, MS, and the 1820 federal census for Greene County, MS. He died 1 April 1827, age 82 years 8 months and is buried in the McIntosh cemetery supposed to be in the southwest part of Wilcox County, AL. Nancy is listed in the 1830 federal census for Wilcox Co. AL and with her daughter-in-law Mrs. J. (Jannett) McIntosh [widow of Angus] in the 1840 federal census for Wilcox County, AL. Nancy died 11 Dec 1842, age 97 years and 9 months and is buried in the same cemetery as her husband.

In the 1784-1787 NC state census Swene is listed as having 2 males above 21 or under 60, four males under 21 or over 60, 3 females and no slaves. In the 1790 federal census he is listed as having 4 males under 16 and 1 over 16, four females, and no slaves. In 1800 he is listed with 3 males between 16-26 and one male between 26-45, 1 female between 10-16, 1 between 16-26, and 1 over 45, and 1 slave. He could have had, therefore, four sons and three daughters.

It is possible that his daughters included Flora McIntosh who married John Baker 5 May 1803 in Richmond Co. NC; Mary McIntosh who married Hugh McLeod 27 Aug 1800 in Richmond Co. NC.

A probable son includes Alexander (15 Jun 1775 - 15 Apr 1849), buried McIntosh cemetery, southwest part of Wilcox Co. AL, probably married Mary (____) McIntosh, (27 Mar 1783 - 7 Aug 1836) buried in same cemetery. Alexander signed a petition of 16 Dec 1808 in Washington Co. MS to divide the county. He is on the 1811 Wayne Co. MS tax list, on the 1812, 1815, 1816, 1817, 1818, 1819, 1820 Greene Co. MS tax rolls, in the 1816 Greene Co. MS territorial census and the 1820 Greene Co. MS federal census. He is in the 1830 and 1840 federal censuses for Wilcox

Co. AL and there are several Wilcox Co. AL court records pertaining to him. His will is recorded in Will Book 2, 1832-1850 for Wilcox Co. AL. His children include son Allen; daughter Catherine McIntosh McLeod (7 Nov 1802 - 17 May 1843 McIntosh Cemetery, married Dr. Alexander McLeod, Jr. (9 May 1803 - 20 Feb 1862) James P., Alexander, Catharine, John, and Margaret Nancy; daughter Margaret (8 Jan 1811 - 1 Mar 1836 McIntosh Cemetery, Wilcox Co. AL) and her daughter Margaret Elizabeth McLeod; daughter Isabella and her children Margaret, Alexander, and John McCaskill. Son-in-law Dr. Alexander McLeod and son Allen McIntosh are executors.

Another probable son of Swene McIntosh is Angus McIntosh, May 1783 - 8 Jan 1838, buried same cemetery as Swene. Angus married Jannet (1795 - May 1848) who after his death married John McDonnell (d 9 Sep 1848, age ca 45). Angus and Jannet had children John, David, Christian, Swine, and Daniel.

Another possible son of Swene McIntosh is Daniel McIntosh who is said to have married Margaret Perkins and who is on the tax list in Greene Co. MS in 1816, 1817, 1819, 1820 and in the federal census for 1820. Daniel had a daughter Charlotte and another daughter Harriet (1811 Chesterfield Co. SC - 29 Jan 1863 Alto, IA) who married William Thrashley Chapman in 1828 in Greene Co. MS. This information was taken from an entry in the International Genealogical Index from data submitted by Mrs. Pearl M. Thames, S. 40th Avenue, Hattiesburg, MS 39401 (601) 264-6709. I have not yet had time to call or correspond with Mrs. Thames.

Another possible son of Swene McIntosh is John K. McIntosh, appointed 1844 in Wilcox Co. AL as guardian of John, David, Christian, Swine, and Daniel McIntosh sons of Angus and Jannet McIntosh. John K. McIntosh may be a grandson of Swene.

The fourth possible son of Swene McIntosh is Neal/Neil McIntosh listed in the 1820 federal census for Greene Co. MS and in the 1830 federal census for Wilcox Co. AL.

Sweney McIntosh, Jr. (15 Nov 1815 - 17 Feb 1837, age 21 yrs 3 mos 2 days), buried McIntosh cemetery, Wilcox Co. AL may be son of Alexander, Daniel or

It is probable that this of McIntoshes is related to the Daniel A. McIntosh (1862-1939) who married Luvenia Tarner 1897 in Leake Co. MS and who is buried in Collins, MS. Also possible related is the Daniel Webster McIntosh listed in the 1910 MS federal census for Jasper Co. A John McIntosh is listed on the 1852, 1854, and 1855 tax rolls for Clarke Co. MS, married 29 Nov 1854 in Clarke Co. MS, and is listed in the 1866 MS state census for Clarke Co. Undoubtedly related is the John Suine McIntosh (1875-1971) buried in Mt. Olive Cemetery, Covington Co. MS, who married Lucy Rawls and had a son named Jim S. McIntosh.

I have no idea if these probable descendants of Swene and Nancy McIntosh are in any way related to the Pickett McIntosh who was my great-great grandfather. I do know Pickett was born about 1830 in Richmond Co. NC; his mother is said to have been a Leak. Pickett and Leak families were prominent in Anson and Richmond counties in NC. Swene McIntosh was the only one of that name listed in the early censuses of Richmond Co., but while Swene was living and dying in SC, MS and AL, an Angus McIntosh not his son and a Daniel McIntosh also not his son continued to live in Richmond Co. NC, with Angus dying in 1821 and Daniel in 1851. Daniel also had property in Chesterfield Co. SC and in fact is buried in a church cemetery just 200 yards south of the NC/SC border in Chesterfield County.

I can give you additional information about Pickett McIntosh and his descendants as listed on your inquiry.

Pickett McIntosh, born ca 1830 Richmond Co. NC, parents unknown died 1906 Jones or Jasper county MS, said to be buried in the Union Line Cemetery north of Soso, MS. No marker and no cemetery records.

Pickett McIntosh married Martha Halford/Alford, born 11 Apr 1831 in AL (probably Butler Co.), parents unknown but definitely related to the Joseph and Mary Halford who lived in Jasper Co. MS in 1850 and 1860 and very probably related to the Owen Halford listed in the federal censuses for Darlington Co. SC in 1800, Barnwell Co. SC in 1810, Conecuh Co. AL in 1820, Butler Co. AL in 1830, 1840, and 1850 [listed with Burrell Halford as male, age 75, born SC]. I have no marriage record for Pickett McIntosh and Martha Halford nor can I find them listed in any 1850 census index. The year of marriage, however, must have been 1850/51. In 1853 they were in Jasper Co. MS, in 1860 in Smith Co. MS, in 1866 back in Jasper Co. MS, in 1870 and 1880 in Jasper Co. and in 1900 in Jones Co. MS near Gitano. Martha died 13 Oct 1901 and is buried at Old Antioch Baptist Church, Gitano (Jones Co.) MS.

The children of Pickett McIntosh and Martha Halford are:

Virgie McCarty. I have some additional information if you need it. A descendant is Houston Halford, 526 Beverly Loop, Alexandria, LA 71303. Descendants also still live in Jasper Co.

I have no information about J. A. McIntosh b SC1830 and LW Robert K. Dent 1860, nor about Mary and Theodore McIntosh LW James Whitley 1860.

In a separate communication you asked about the Hosey family. I have a certain amount of information but am in the process of acquiring what I hope will be considerably more since someone in my grandfather's generation is supposed to have done a family record. I have been promised a copy. Whether or not I receive it, I will pass along to you this summer the information I have on births, marriages, deaths, etc., for Hoseys. I have also, of course, some information about Buchanan and McWilliams families in Jasper County. [Also McWilliams in Simpson Co.] My great-grandfather Benjamin Columbus Buchanan and his oldest sister Eveline Buchanan [Mrs. William Carlton] McCraw lived in Jasper county from the 1880's until their deaths in 1940 and 1928, having lived in Clarke Co. before moving to Jasper Co. Their parents, J. Charles and Nancy C. (Harrison) Buchanan, and their siblings lived in Jasper Co. in the 1880's and then moved about 1885 to Collin Co. TX where Charley and Nancy and one sister are buried.

Please let me tell you how much I appreciate the work you and the Stricklands have done and are doing; you have saved me and other interested researchers many hours of traveling and digging into old records. And that is especially important to those of us who have very limited time available to expend on our passion for genealogy. Thanks for jobs well done!

Yours truly,

Gerald Buchanan

Genealogy boom hits Eastern

By way of introduction

A BOOMING interest in genealogy, the Montreal Olympics and the Bicentennial celebrations in the United States have contributed to making this an excellent year for the Missisquoi County Historical Society and a busy summer for Doris McIntosh, its archivist and first vice-president.

More people are researching their family trees this year, according to the sharply increased mail the society has received. At the same time attendance so far this year at the Missisquoi Museum in East Stanbridge is more than double what it was for the whole of 1975. Located in the old Cornell Mill, the museum is owned and operated by the Missisquoi County Historical Society.

Mrs. McIntosh feels genealogy can be a fascinating hobby for young and old. "It is inexpensive and as time-consuming as the individual wants to make it. The mobility of modern society sometimes spurs people into seeking roots or an identity with an era when home and family were more stable. The current nostalgia fad is an inspiration for others. Students interested in genealogy get a chance to make history come alive," she said.

Family tree

Missisquoi Museum visitors are encouraged to keep their projects personal by doing their own research. However, inquiries are handled by mail. A fee of $5 is charged if no research is required. For a detailed search, the charge is $5 an hour with a minimum deposit covering 10 hours. Museum staff are all volunteers except for the receptionist.

Mrs. McIntosh has traced her own family background to maternal and paternal ancestors who arrived on separate ships in the United States in 1635.

"Sleuthing through the generations is not always easy but once started, it can be like eating peanuts, hard to stop. I have run into some problems because my maiden name was Jones and I sometimes think that nearly everyone in this area is related in some way to a Jones. It is not a case of keeping up with the Joneses, it's more a matter of rounding them up."

The surging interest in genealogy began about 10 years ago in Canada and the United States, Mrs. McIntosh said. It has been greatly stimulated in the U.S. by the observance of the Bicentennial. Americans are wondering what their ancestors were doing 200 years ago and many are trying to put personalities to places that were important at that time. This gives a new dimension to interest in the Eastern Townships with its United Empire Loyalist pioneers.

Some descendants of those early settlers now live in the United States and are sending inquiries to the Museum from places as far apart as Florida and California.

Some visitors who came to the museum this summer came primarily to see the Olympic equestrian events at nearby Bromont and then combined this with a tour of the countryside.

Besides attracting genealogical enthusiasts, the museum is also a source of information for people seeking proof of age or writing books.

On the library shelves are old school records, textbooks, store ledgers, deeds, diaries and other valuable documentary material.

When an LIP grant to the Missisquoi Historical Society in 1972 made possible the publication of volume 12 of the history and notes of the society, Mrs. McIntosh was asked to help edit the book and has been active in the organization and the museum ever since. She also edited the most recent book Missisquoi Loyalist Legacies.

School teacher

While much of her work as archivist is done at the museum, she also does research on old land grants and records in Cowansville.

She was responsible for completing the catalogue of the society's manuscripts and documents and hopes for sufficient funding to get it reproduced and distributed.

A former high school teacher, Mrs. McIntosh enjoyed her profession so much that she found it difficult to leave it. Her first assignment was a brief three-month supply post in one of the last little one-room school houses. It was in Pigeon Hill and some pupils were older than she was. Her salary was $40 a month.

She spent three years at Rosemont Elementary School before leaving the classroom duties to marry accountant Sinclair McIntosh and moving with him to Bedford. Once there, she returned to work, only to retire again when her older son was born. In 1957 she went back as an English specialist and principal at Bedford High School. This was followed by a session on the planning board for the regional Massey-Vivian School.

Returned to Quebec

When her husband retired in 1969, she decided to do the same thing and they moved to Red Lake, a mining town in northern Ontario. When settled, she once more turned to teaching, this time in the local high school and the next year took a similar job in a school near Lake Temiskaming.

A desire to return to Quebec brought them back to East Stanbridge and their house on Dutch Street which had been

She finished her career in 1973 after commuting to Montreal to teach at Centennial School. "That time it was a permanent decision," she laughed. "I was beginning to feel like the senior citizen who didn't know when to retire."

Returned to Quebec

When her husband retired in 1969, she decided to do the same thing and they moved to Red Lake, a mining town in northern Ontario. When settled, she once more turned to teaching, this time in the local high school and the next year took a similar job in a school near Lake Temiskaming.

A desire to return to Quebec brought them back to East Stanbridge and their house on Dutch Street which had been built nearly a century ago by members of her family.

She finished her career in 1973 after commuting to Montreal to teach at Centennial School.

"That time it was a permanent decision," she laughed. "I was beginning to feel like the senior citizen who didn't know when to retire."

However, the myth of having lots of leisure time after 65 has been shattered, she claims.

Besides being deeply involved with the Missisquoi Historical Society, she is secretary of the Protestant Retired Teachers Home and Benefits Corporation. The corporation, a component of the Provincial Association of Protestant Retired Teachers (PAPRT), owns and operates the Robinson Residence in Cowansville as a home for retired Protestant teachers. Retired people who have not been teachers are sometimes accepted now, following a recent policy change.

She has two sons and one daughter and feels she is able to give a lot of time to the historical society and PAPRT because of the patience and understanding of her husband whom she describes as "an expert gardener, an omnivorous reader and a darn good cook."

Mutual interests decide their holidays which this year include attendance at a genealogical seminar at Sheridan College in Oakville, Ont., and a visit to Horwood Outpost, a fishing and hunting camp operated by their son, Ronald, 65 miles from Timmins.

"We enjoy travelling and new surroundings but are always glad to return home to the Eastern Townships, a fact of which I'm sure my United Empire Loyalist ancestors would thoroughly approve."
